1972 PROFILE

CATHOLIC BOYS HIGH SCHOOL
QUINCY, ILLINOIS VOLUME 13

When you are old and grey and full of sleep,
And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep;

How many loved your moments of glad grace,
And loved your beauty with love false or true;
But one man loved the pilgrim soul in you,
And loved the sorrows of your changing face;

And, bending down beside the glowing bars,
Murmur, a little sadly, how love fled
And paced upon the mountains overhead
And hid her face amid a crowd of stars.

- William Butler Yeats

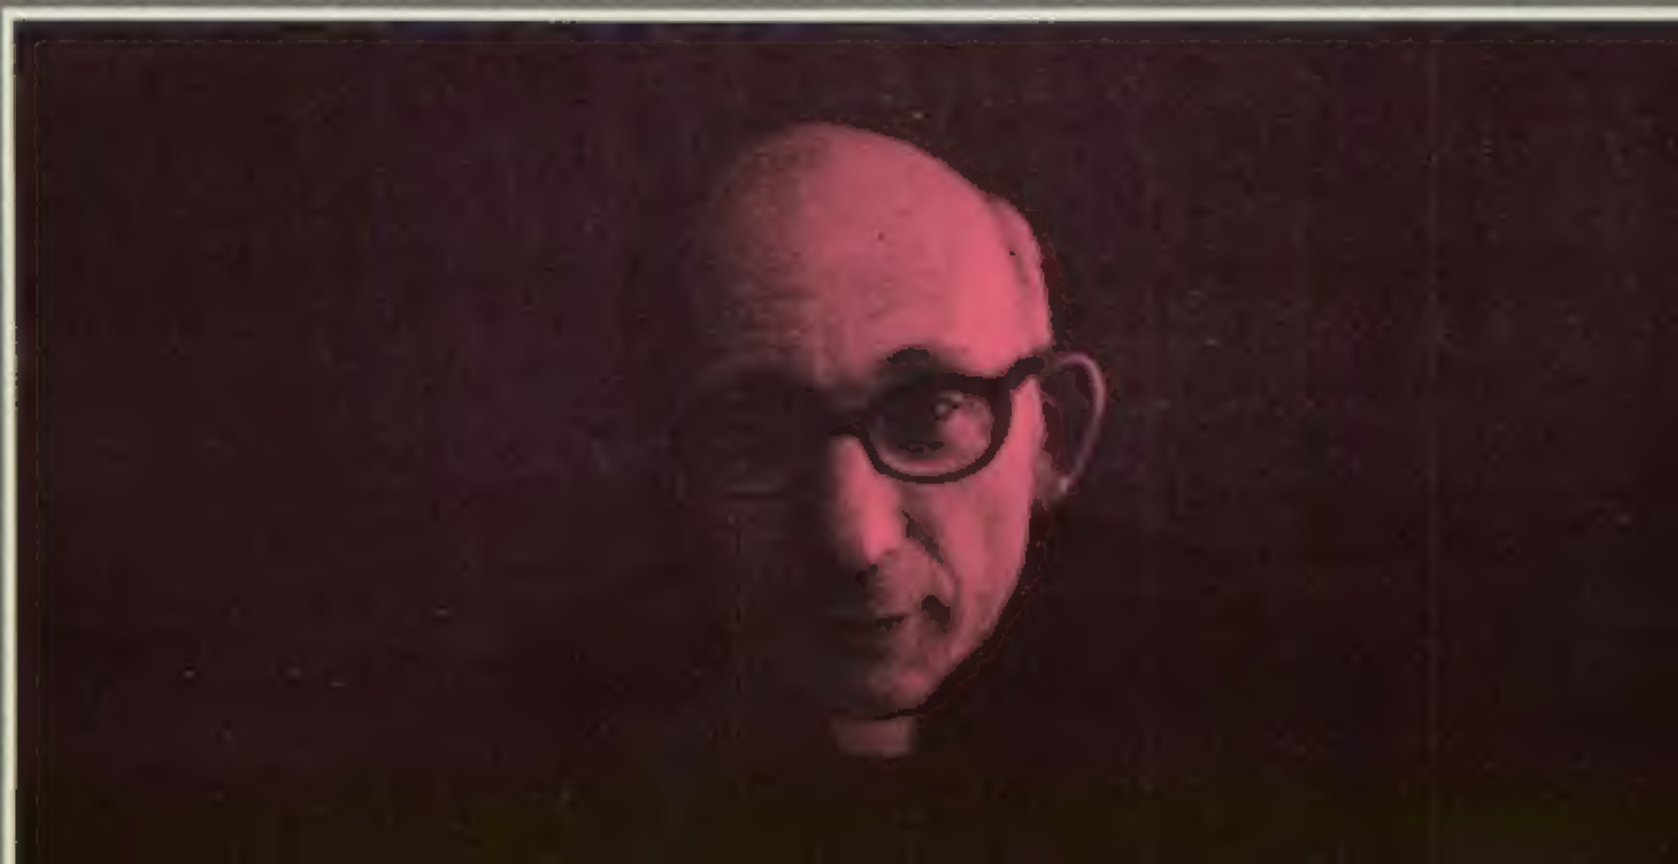

I met a traveler from an antique land
 Who said: "Two vast and trunkless legs of stone
 Stand in the desert. Near them, on the sand,
 Half sunk, a shattered visage lies, whose
 frown,
 And wrinkled lip, and sneer of cold command,
 Tell that its sculptor well those passions
 read
 Which yet survive, stamped on those lifeless
 things,
 The hand that mocked them, and the heart

 that fed;
 And on the pedestal these words appear:
 'My name is Ozymandias, king of kings;
 Look on my works, ye mighty, and despair.
 Nothing beside remains. Round the decay
 Of that colossal wreck, boundless and bare
 The lone and level sands stretch far away.'

- Percy Bysshe Shelley

From childhood's hour I have not been

As others were; I have not seen

As others saw; I could not bring

My passions from a common spring.

From the same source I have not taken

My sorrow; I could not awaken

My heart to joy at the same tone;

And all I loved, I loved alone.

Then - in my childhood, in the dawn

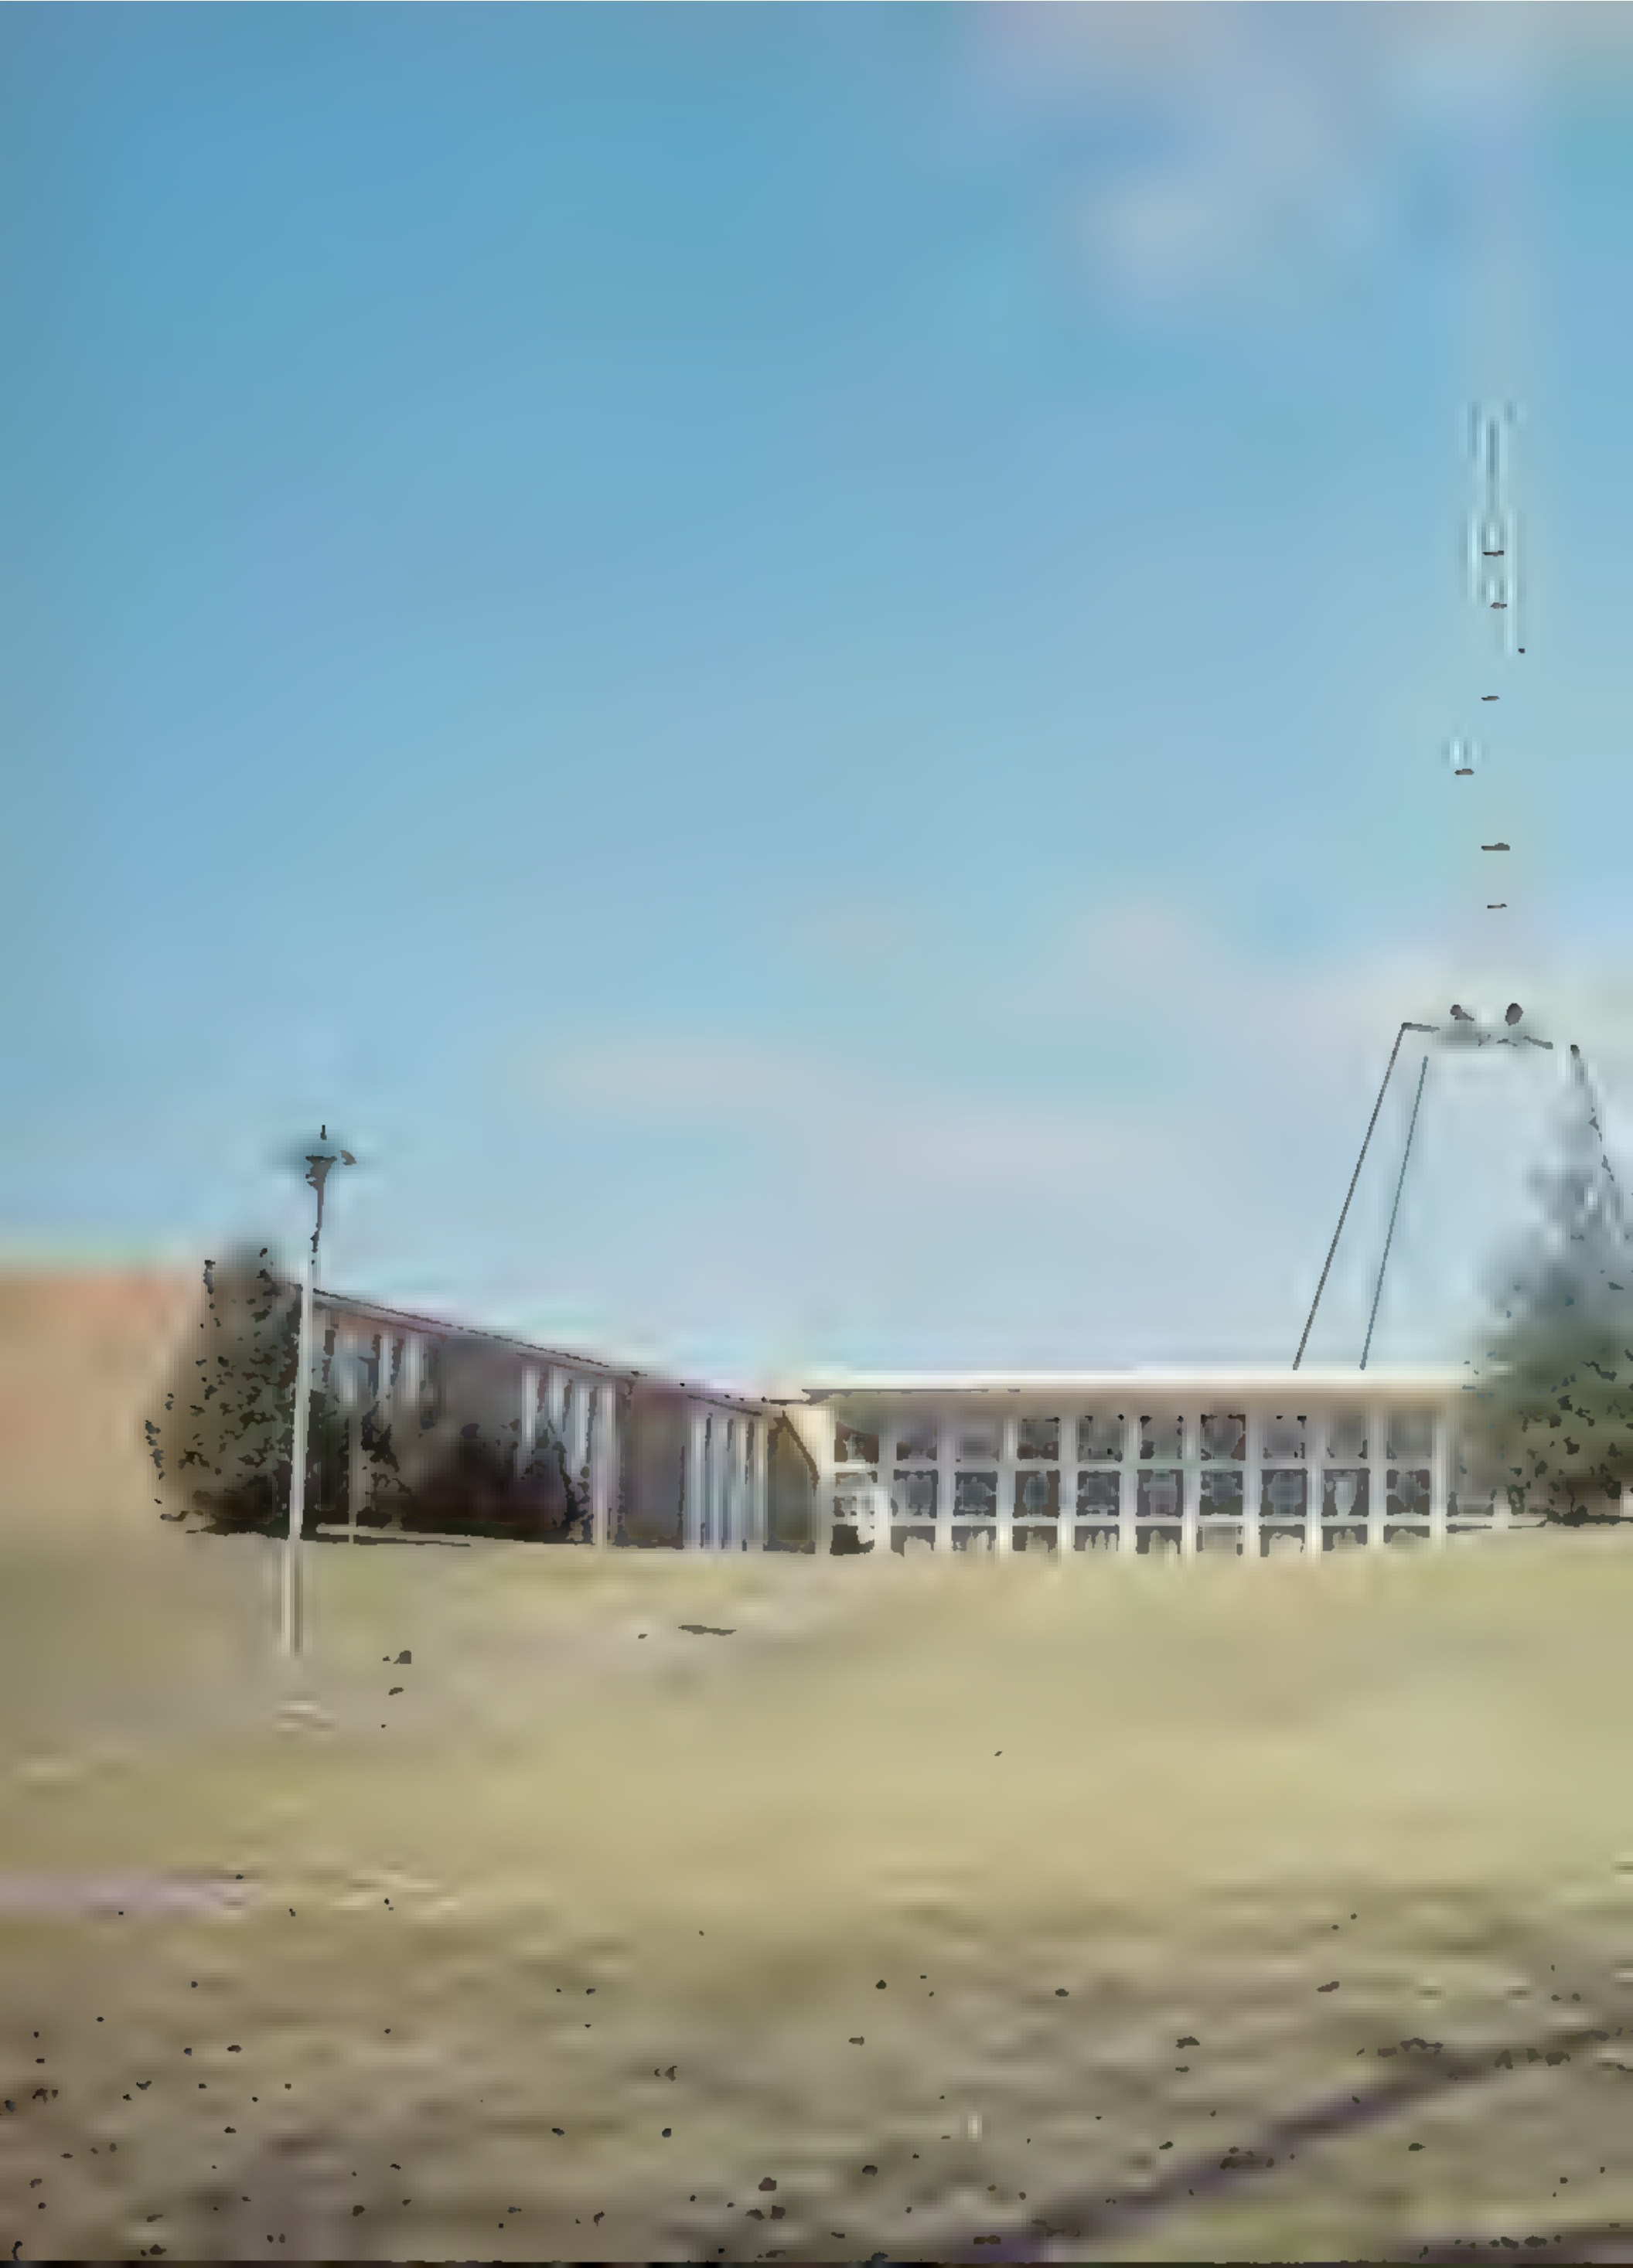

Of a most stormy life - was drawn

From every depth of good and ill

The mystery which binds me still.

— Edgar Allan Poe

The earth keeps some vibration going
There in your heart, and that is you.
And if the people find you can fiddle,
Why, fiddle you must, for all your life.
What do you see, a harvest of clover?
Or a meadow to walk through to the river?
The wind's in the corn; you rub your hands
For beeves hereafter ready for market;
Or else you hear the rustle of skirts
Like the girls when dancing at Little Grove.
To Cooney Potter a pillar of dust
Or whirling leaves meant ruinous drouth;
They looked to me like Red-Head Sammy
Stepping it off, to 'Toor-a-Loor.'
How could I till my forty acres
Not to speak of getting more,
With a medley of horns, bassoons and piccolos
Stirred in my brain by crows and robins
And the creak of a wind-mill -- only these?
And I never started to plow in my life
That some one did not stop in the road
And take me away to a dance or picnic.
I ended up with forty acres;
I ended up with a broken fiddle--
And a broken laugh, and a thousand memories,
And not a single regret.

- Edgar Lee Masters

In past years, the PROFILE has been dedicated to a teacher who has had a great influence on the outgoing senior class. However, the Class of 1972 would like to recognize a person who influenced them during their earlier years of high school. Through her great contribution of time and effort, she has helped lead incoming freshmen and sophomores on the road to becoming better upperclassmen, besides giving them the benefit of her knowledge as a Spanish teacher.

With this in mind, the Class of 1972 is proud to dedicate the 1972 PROFILE to Mrs. Peggy Finigan.

FACULTY & ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATION OF C.B.H.S.

The Administration of C.B. took on a new look for this year. The Rev. Philip Scherer remained as the Principal, but Mr. James Armstrong received the position of Guidance Counselor. Mr. Armstrong brought with him many innovative ideas in guidance and in student counseling one of which was senior day, a day in which Seniors assumed the many administrative and teaching roles. The other administrative change was the appointment of Mr. P. Sauer as the disciplinarian of C.B. The results are testimonial to this appointment.

SIX ALUMNUS SERVE AS FACULTY MEMBER

Six Alumni of C.B. & N.D. Have returned as faculty members of C.B.H.S. They are as PICTURED ABOVE: Larry Waterkotte ('64)- Biology & General Science, Tom Deters ('64)- Geometry, Algebra II, Math analysis & Art; Bruce Grieving (ND-59)- Accounting, Business Law, Current Economics, & Typing; Marty Settles (64)- English II & III; Mike Wavering (65)- Chemistry & Physical Science; and Terry Selby (64)- Religion I, II, & III. These fine teachers are a great testimonial to the kind of education C.B. provides.

STUDENT COUNCIL MOVES FORWARD

The Student Council put the revised constitution in to effect this year with much success. The Council also sponsored many student exchanges during the year. One of the most important innovations was the revision of the dress code and the implementation of a student-faculty board. The students leading the council forward are pictured above. They are SEATED, L TO R, Steve Siebers, Secretary, Rob Christie, President, Ron Runser, Vice President, STANDING, John Eversman, Treasurer, Paul Harvey, Sergeant-at-arms.

The Student Council took many steps for the betterment of the school this year. The Senior day in which the seniors of the school took over the operation of the school. The numerous student exchanges during the year provided the council with more ideas for the future and afforded students from other schools to view the operation of CBHS. The student council also undertook a massive project in the city by assisting the heart fund with their annual drive which incidentally was a huge success. They also contributed to the school by their cleaning of the school in the late winter. The officers put many hours into another project solely for the students, the dress code and the student faculty board. Their advisor Father Biskner also put many hours into the Council in addition to his other duties at the home of Raider Pride; Catholic Boys High School.

I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to my fellow creature, let me do it now; let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

The Key Club of CB in its second year of operation in the newly structed school performed many old projects and undertook some new ones. Some of these projects were the sale of Halloween candy for the kidney Foundation, the periodic cleaning of the trash receptacles, ...AND... the newest project; THE MARATHON', a marathon basketball game of 63 hours played against Senior High's Key Club. In this Game CB's Club were the victors of the game, but the crippled Children of Camp Callahan were the real victors as all proceeds of the game went to these children. Congratulations to the Key Club on another fine year.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club took more steps forward in their third year of existence at CBHS. The club participated in three tournaments including the state. The team is composed of entirely underclassmen so the outlook for future years is very promising.

SENIOR DAY

SENIORS TAKE OVER
THE SCHOOL?!

THEY CAN HAVE IT.
AH, YES!

Z

Ron Kasparie enjoys a fleeting moment as principal.

Paul Harvey and Rick Davis attempt to instruct their class in the secrets of geometry.

As the day wears on, the senior faculty room becomes as smoke-filled as the actual faculty room is.

Bogus Khan continues his lecture as he loses the attention of the last man in his class.

My friends, let's to the fields -

I have a fever.

After a walk, and by your leave, I will sleep.

There is no fate more blessed, or more divine,
than to sleep.

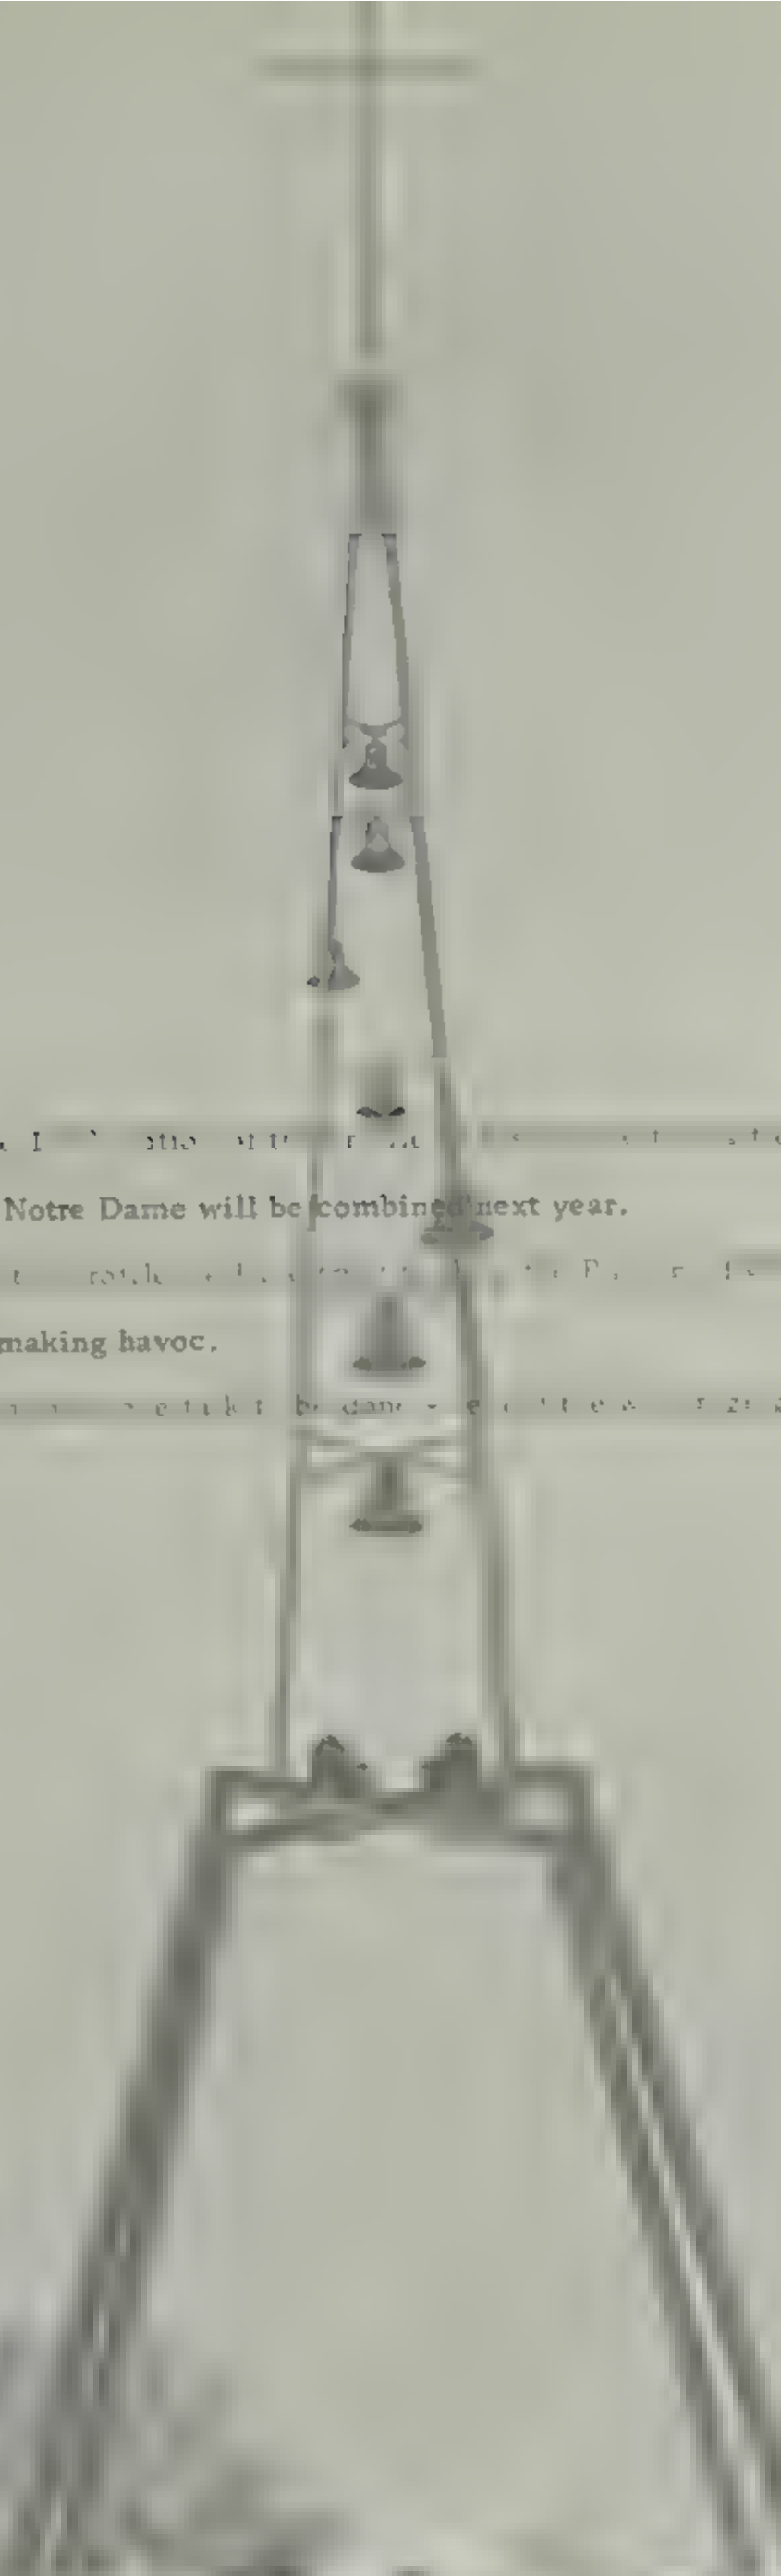

I pass the world like an orange to a child.

I can no more with it -

Do what you will.

- Edgar Lee Masters -Spoon River Anthology

You now have the best of both worlds. The yearbooks of CB and Notre Dame will be combined next year.

In this edition of the yearbook, you will find the best of both worlds, from making out to making havoc.

Now there remains only one task to be done - to create a masterpiece of work of art.

This page is dedicated to the memory of a man who was a former teacher and coach at CB, Elmo "Mac" McClain. More importantly, however, Mac was a friend to all the students at CB, and, even after he quit teaching to devote his time to politics, he was still a familiar figure around CB. His honesty and integrity were an inspiration to all those who came in contact with him. With his death has come a certain emptiness into the lives of those who knew him. We join with all of his friends in extending our sympathy to his family.

United Nations

In 1971: Iran celebrated her 2,500th anniversary. India and Pakistan had a war. East Pakistan became Bangladesh. American troops continued their withdrawal from Vietnam, astronauts used a Lunar Rover on the moon, the U.S. ping-pong team visited China, Mrs. Nixon visited Africa. Communist China entered the United Nations. Kissinger arranged for President Nixon to visit Peking, Nikita Khrushchev died. Russian Premier Kosygin visited Canada, Canada's Prime Minister Trudeau got married. British soldiers struggled to maintain order in northern Ireland, and the U.S. began her Mariner probe of Mars.
